Pop-Up Global Symposia about Life & Ecology for You

Session #7
[Thursday 21 May 2020; 1 PM NYC time]
Remember -- rotating days from week to week!

Anna Trugman (UC-Santa Barbara) Trait velocities: A story of community hydraulic trait composition, forest demographic rates, and climate

Victor Leshyk (N. Arizona University)
ACCURATE PASSION: Fine Art in the Service of Science

A weekly series of one hour Symposia on Zoom for ≈ 8 to 12 weeks (April to June or July). The idea is to hear about great science; network across labs, institutions, states and countries; focus with our community on something other than COVID-19; and share some music, poetry, cooking, and other arts.

Upcoming Sessions:
May 27, Asmeret Berhe (UC – Merced), Sasha Reed (USGS)
June 4, Alastair Potts (Nelson Mandela Uni), Peter Wragg, Personal Resilience Workshop
