Pop-Up Global Symposia about Life & Ecology for You

PUGSLEY
2020

Session #10
Thurs 25 June 2020; 1130 AM NYC time

Cristina Portales Reyes (Univ of Minnesota): Fire promotes the recovery of biodiversity following nutrient enrichment

Winslow Hansen (Columbia Univ): Global hotspots of forest tolerance and sensitivity to climate variability

A weekly series of one hour Symposia on Zoom for ≈ 8 to12 weeks (April to June or July). The idea is to hear about great science; network across labs, institutions, states and countries; focus with our community on something other than COVID-19; and share some music, poetry, cooking, and other arts.

Upcoming Sessions:

July 2; Beatriz Aguirre (Cal State Los Angeles), Alejandro Salazar (Instituto de Investigación de Recursos Biológicos Alexander von Humboldt)

Summer Break!
